

THEORETICAL ARCHAEOLOGY GROUP

PROGRAMME FOR MEETING, 9th to 11th DECEMBER 1977

(Note that the timing allows for 15 minute paper plus 10 discussion, or 10 minute paper plus 15 discussion. It is ESSENTIAL that the speakers keep within the allotted time. Egg timers will ring after 10 minutes).

FRIDAY EVENING, 9TH DECEMBER 8 to 10pm. Meet at the Crown and Sceptre, Burgess Road, Southampton. Informal accommodation will be arranged for all Sheffield speakers and all other Sheffield staff/research students whose names have reached Southampton Departmental secretaries by Wednesday 7th December. In some cases, sleeping bags will be needed.

SATURDAY, 10TH DECEMBER

Meetings in Room
Arts I Building

9.00 Opening Remarks

9.10 to 10.50 FORM, FUNCTION, AND ARTEFACTS

Pat Phillips	Microwear and tool function
Robin Torrence	Inter-assembly variability
David Peacock	Why build kilns?
Peta Jones	The typology of stone settlements in southern Africa

10.50 to 11.10 COFFEE

11.10 to 13.15 INTERPRETIVE PROBLEMS

Chris Arnold	Recognising invasion/migrations
Arthur ApSimon	Changing explanations for discontinuity
Robin Dennell	Sand deserts and theory testing
Graeme Barker	Thinking about zimbabwes
Tom Levy	Theory testing in the Negev

13.15 to 14.15 LUNCH

14.15 to 15.30 QUESTIONS OF SOCIAL STRUCTURE

Tim and Sara Champion	Hallstatt graves and social structure
David Hinton	Aspects of wealth: records and finds
John Cherry	The state and ecological succession

15.30 to 15.50 TEA

15.50 to 18.20 SUBSISTENCE STRATEGIES AND POPULATION (A)

Alan Turner	Competitive predation
Michael Wilkinson	Theoretical problems in fishbone studies
Jennifer Bourdillon	Quantifying animal bones
Paul Mellars	The economics of uncertainty - the economics of resource exploitation

17.00 to 17.10 AIR

17.10 to 18.25 SUBSISTENCE STRATEGIES AND POPULATION (B)

Andrew Fleming	Boserup-bashing
Peter Winham	Subsistence strategy and agriculturalists
Keith Branigan	Population or over-population? approaches to population estimates in pre- and proto-history

19.30 BUFFET DINNER IN ARTS I, ROOM 103

SUNDAY 11TH DECEMBER

9.15 Group reconvenes

9.25 to 10.40 TRADE AND EXCHANGE

Mark Brisbane	Redistribution in stateless and state societies
Richard Hodges	Tating Ware - a primitive valuable in the age of missionaries
Alan Vince	The interpretation of pottery distributions

10.40 to 11.10 COFFEE

11.10 to 12.00 MAN AND COMMUNICATION

Steve Pierpoint	The psychology of conformity behaviour - an archaeological problem
Clive Gamble	Talking to Neanderthal man: language and communication in the palaeolithic (The Medium is the Mousterian).

12.00 to 13.00 T.A.G. Business Meeting

13.00 Meetings end.

Saeki
Wife
Nice
Sanctuary site

.....

Specialty items
Stationary
Production of ceramics
of contemporary
value
of ethnographic
value
of potential
value
of
value

Extensive + ancient aged, wrapped go to
+ specialists